2014 Speakers

Once again we are pleased to offer a great and varied line up of speakers for this years conference.

Mother Miriam of the Lamb of God is known to many through her appearances on EWTN. Born and raised in a Jewish home in New York, she entered the Church in 1995. Since then she has traveled the world speaking and teaching through conferences and parish missions.

John Smeaton is chief executive of the Society for the Protection of Unborn Children (SPUC), the UK's largest and the world's oldest pro-life organisation and a popular speaker at last years conference.

Fr Marcel Guarnizo is a priest of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Moscow, Russia. He is an ambassador to the World Congress of Families and a member of the Dignitatis Humanae Institute.

Fr Michael Shields is a native born Alaskan priest now in the Diocese of St Joseph, Siberia, Russia. Fr Michael supports many ministries in his parish and community including pro-life work with young women under pressure to have abortions.

José Antonio Ureta is a founding member of the Fundación Roma, the most influential pro life and pro family organisation in Chile.

Dr Éanna Johnson is a Catholic parent and grandparent. He will address the issue of Catholic education and ask if we are failing our children and what can be done to correct the situation.

Fr Morty O'Shea SOLT is a stalwart of the Pro Life movement and is in remission from bone cancer. He will speak on the importance of family prayer and devotions.

Fr David Barrins OP is a Dominican friar and chaplain at UCC, Cork.
